

BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS.

J. WISE HIGINS, Editor and Publisher

A NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EASTERN KENTUCKY.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Volume III.

Jackson, Kentucky, Friday, September 2, 1904.

Number 47.

It will accept advertisement on a guaranty that our paper has more than twice the circulation in Breathitt County of any paper published. Our paper goes to every post office in Perry County and almost every one in Lee, Mingo, Owsley, Wolfe and Knott Counties.

If you want to reach the mountain trade, try an ad in the Breathitt County News.

What is Inside OF THE WORLD'S FAIR
And How To See It At The Least Expense.

The Henderson Route has gotten up and is now offering for free distribution a very complete and valuable booklet describing what is inside and what is outside of the World's Fair and how to see it at the least expense. The booklet contains information of such value that all prospective visitors to St. Louis should have a copy. How to reach the Fair by lands and air, the most convenient plan for reaching the Exposition, things of importance to see in St. Louis, together with many other valuable pointers regarding a trip of this nature, are some of the many points covered in this complete booklet. It is something you should have in planning your World's Fair trip and can be obtained for all passing Mr. L. J. Brown, General Passenger Agent, Henderson Route, Louisville, Ky.

The Best Offer Yet.
We will give you the Courier-Journal Six Months or the Louisville Herald one year and the Breathitt Co. News one year and ONE GUESS at the $10,000.00 PRIZE. For One Dollar.

If you are a Democrat, you will want to read the Courier-Journal. If you are a Republican, you will want to read the Louisville Herald during the Campaign. If you are either, you will want to read the Breathitt County News and try to get the $10,000.00 Prize.

$18.00 Chicago to St. Paul-Minneapolis and Return

Via the North-Western Line $22.00 round trip Chicago to Superior and Duluth; $20.75 round trip Chicago to St. Paul, Minn., tickets on sale daily. $12.85 Chicago to Minneapolis and return, on sale August 2 and 16 and September 1 and 20. Corresponding rates in rates from other points perfectly appointed train service, through sleeping cars. The best of everything, information and tickets can be secured from your home agent or address N. M. Breese, 435 Vine Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Wanted!

One Thousand Men and Women to pass the Civil Service Examination for the following United States Government positions:

- NAME OF POSITION
Age Limit, 20
Clerk - Male or Female
Stenographer - Male or Female
Stenographer and Typewriter Male or Female
Bookkeeper - Male or Female
Railway Mail Clerk. Age 18 to 35
Tender 20
Custom House Branch
Age Limit 20
Day Inspector
Clerk - Male or Female
Assistant Weigher
Messenger
Sampler
Internal Revenue Branch
Age Limit 21
Clerk
Gauger
Storekeeper
Post Office Branch
Clerk - Male or Female 18 to 45
Clerk Carrier
For information as to requirements Address, 12 Box 885, Lexington, Ky. Write Name and Address plainly.

RUSSIANS FALL BACK.

Advanced Positions at Liao Yang Slowly Withdrawn.

DECISIVE BATTLE MAY BE FOUGHT

Three Days of Heavy Fighting Preceded the Retirement of the Russian Forces. General Sukharoff's Troop Heavy Conditions at Port Arthur. Other War News.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 29. — All the news from Liao Yang, official or otherwise, shows that General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

General Kuroki's position to the lower end of defenses. After three days of heavy fighting, the latter part of which was impeded by rain, the Russians were compelled to divide six guns which it was impossible to take from the high positions over the muddy roads, but during the fighting on the southern front they captured some Japanese guns. It is reported also that they destroyed some Japanese mountain batteries.

IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE.

Offered by the Henderson Route between Louisville and St. Louis.

Commencement Sunday, June 26th, Kentucky's popular line the Henderson Route, will inaugurate a new and fast day service between Louisville and St. Louis in each direction, and will improve the time and equipment generally of all trains between these points. Three daily trains will be operated in each direction on the following schedule: Leave Louisville 8:20 a.m., 9:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. Arrive St. Louis 6:10 p.m., 7:20 a.m. and 8:10 p.m. The equipment is brand new (just from the shops of the most modern vestibule pattern and is as fine as any train operating in the east of Kentucky.

The 8:20 a.m. train, through without change of cars, will consist of Pullman sleeping cars, Free Reclining Chair Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The 7:00 p.m. train, through without change of cars, will consist of Pullman sleeping cars, Free Reclining Chair Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The 9:00 a.m. train will have Pullman Dining Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The Dining Cars on day trains will serve lunch. A la carte you pay for what you get.

All trains will leave from and arrive at the Seventh Street Union Depot, Louisville, arriving at and departing from the magnificent new Union Station, St. Louis.

Representing your tickets to St. Louis to points west, ask the agent for tickets via Louisville and the Henderson Route. He will have them in stock and will be glad to show you that way.

You will be satisfied in every respect with the accommodation and safe service that is offered by this line, which has been termed the Official Route for Kentuckians.

The new time card of the L. & N. Railroad company which went into effect July 18th will enable persons from Jackson and all points East of Kentucky to connect at Nashville with their early morning train for Chattanooga, Irvine and Richmond.

Their time card appears in another column.

New Standard DINING CARS FOR

World's Fair Traffic VIA SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

On account of the popularity and greatly increased patronage of the SOUTHERN RAILWAY SPECIAL (From No. 21) which leaves Lexington daily at 10:10 a.m. and Louisville at 12:00 p.m. for St. Louis, the SOUTHERN RAILWAY has found it necessary to put into service magnificent new standard dining cars, which will provide service superior to any railroad in this section of the country.

The arrival time of this splendid train at St. Louis is 4:15 p.m. daily being the fastest train via any line from Lexington, Louisville and intermediate points to St. Louis.

This is very important news to all of the people of Indiana and Kentucky who live in the portion of those States penetrated by the SOUTHERN RAILWAY. And this route through these States is a direct, a shorter one than those of the Louisville and Nashville.

The trains will stop only at the principal points between Lexington, Louisville and St. Louis and have been conspicuously popular with all first class travelers to the World's Fair. The most satisfactory way to appreciate the advantages these trains is to compare with the appointments of cars on any other railroad operating into St. Louis.

The Exposition is now complete in every detail, presenting a picture too beautiful to describe. The Generosity of people from far distances who have stayed their visit for this completion has now begun to move so that the finishing touches which the SOUTHERN RAILWAY has put upon its already superb train service is very timely and will doubtless be sincerely appreciated by the public generally.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY makes the shortest road from Lexington and Louisville and intermediate points to St. Louis.

One guess may mean a fortune to you.

IN STORMY PATH.

Tornado Sweeps Through Grove, Killing Four Plowmen.

Jamestown, N. Y., Aug. 26. — A tornado swept through Chautauque county, killing four persons, injuring several and destroying property valued at several thousand dollars.

A plow was being held in Park Grove, which was in the path of the storm. Three in the grove were blown down or struck by lightning and many persons were caught by the falling branches and killed or injured.

The dead: Mrs. Arthur E. Pittor of Fredonia, Miss Lisa Scott of Shunda, Orin Darymple 66; unidentified child. The most seriously injured, Mrs. Gita Darymple of Shunda, will probably die; Arthur Bills, Portland.

Fought on Neutral Territory. Buenos Ayres, Aug. 29. — A great sensation has been created here owing to the surprising by troops of the government of Uruguay of a Uruguayan insurrectionary force numbering 150 men, fully armed and equipped, under Colonel Pamplillon, on a steamer on the Fraguera coast, but in Argentine territory. President Gonzalez of Uruguay had been warned that preparations were being made for an insurrectionary expedition, and dispatched two forces with armed vessels to watch for the expedition. At night the government troops attacked the insurrectionists with continuous and merciless fire. Many of the latter were captured, but eight, badly wounded, were captured. The fate of the others is not known. The insurrectionary command was also captured and with it a considerable quantity of telegraph apparatus. Diplomatic relations between Argentina and Uruguay have become much strained owing to this incident.

Panic in Tenement Fire. New York, Aug. 29. — Fire, which drove hundreds of persons into a panic from a tenement row on Graham avenue, Brooklyn, resulted in the serious injury of a woman and a child who tried to save their lives by jumping from the second story. The woman was Mrs. Annie Stahl, 58; the child's name is not known. Both were injured unconscious to a hospital. Firemen and policemen made many daring rescues, reaching scores of men, women and children by means of ladders after the lower portion of the building became a mass of fire. The financial loss was not heavy.

Kansas Saloons Wrecked. Cuba, Kan., Aug. 29. — Four illicit saloons were wrecked by a violent fire and much liquor destroyed. Mrs. D. D. Pites and Mrs. William McDonald, wives of prominent business men, arrived with hatches, first entered without warning the place run by Ben Hill. Without ceremony they began to smash everything in sight, and soon they had demolished bars and fixtures and broken every bottle and opened every keg to be found. Later they were joined by 25 other women, and the entire party railed the other three places in Cuba.

Bank Clerks Drowned. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 27. — Herbert D. Hill, a clerk in the Imperial bank and James C. Patterson, a teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the Canadian Soo, were drowned in the river here. Their boat was capsized by wind. Patterson was a son of J. C. Patterson of Ottawa, an excellent golfer and a well-known and popular figure in the Hill family.

Enormous Crowds at Fair. St. Louis, Aug. 29. — The attendance at the world's fair last week was more than 125,000, an increase of one week since the opening of the fair. Saturday's attendance, 152,098, was the largest for any single day since the opening day with the exception of the Fourth of July, when 172,140 persons passed through the gates. The average daily attendance for last week was 122,245. The total attendance for the week was 793,741.

British Minister Dead. Maastricht, Netherlands, Aug. 27. — Edward Thornton, the British minister to Netherlands, died here following a severe attack of asthma. President Zeyher has ordered that the honors be paid to the deceased minister. The commission appointed by the Netherlands government to assist in the settlement of the boundary question between the republics of Nicaragua and Honduras left for Honduras.

Discovered Beer Treasure. Johanna, Transvaal, Aug. 20. — Mr. Kemp, a coachman of General Kemp, the British commander, has discovered a hidden treasure of beer in the Transvaal. The treasure, valued at £1,250,000, of which the government will receive half.

Japs Take Aping. Tokyo, Aug. 30. — A report of Japanese occupation of Aping and Tachihayao says: "On the Japanese advancing to attack Aping the Russians evacuated the place abandoning large quantities of stores for the Russians to capture. The Russians are now around Aping consists of 12,000 soldiers."

Jerry Simpson Defeated. Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 27. — Representative Money was nominated for delegate to congress by the territorial convention. The vote was Money 7; Jerry Simpson, 36. The convention adopted resolutions declaring for single statehood.

Fatal Postoffice Hit. Ventura, Cal., Aug. 27. — The postoffice at Pirri City was totally destroyed by fire and Deputy Postmaster Burnham was caught in the flames and burned to death.

CAPITAL IS A PANIC.

Relief Growing That the Paraguayan Government Must Yield.

Buenos Ayres, Aug. 28. — The panic at Asuncion is indescribable. Foreigners in all parts of Paraguay are leaving under the protection of the diplomatic corps. Preparations for hostilities and negotiations looking to the settlement of the questions at issue between the revolutionists and the government are proceeding simultaneously. The belief is growing that the government must yield. The rumors that a hand engagement has been fought between the revolutionists and government troops, resulting in the defeat of the latter and the capture of 500 men, have not yet been confirmed.

Heir to Russian Throne Named. St. Petersburg, Aug. 25. — The christening of the heir to the Russian throne took place at the Church of the Peterhof palace with imposing ceremony. A procession of golden coaches accompanied the infant prince from the Alexandra Villa to the church. After the metropolitan of St. Petersburg administered the sacrament to the heir, the emperor invested the latter with the insignia of the Order of St. Andrew. Immediately thereafter the rite of church bells and the firing of a salute of 101 guns announced the completion of the ceremony.

Children Drowned. Cleburne, Tex., Aug. 26. — Four children were drowned by the capsizing of a boat in the Brazos river near Acton, Hood county. The dead: John Franklin, 10; Kitty Franklin, 10; Joe Franklin, 8; D. F. Goodwin, 12. There were six boys and girls, all told, in the boat at the time of the disaster. In going down stream one of the boat's keels struck a snag and the vessel immediately turned over. Two boys, names unknown, swam ashore. The bodies of the victims were recovered.

Corbett O'Brien Bout Off. Philadelphia, Aug. 26. — The proposed boxing bout between Corbett and O'Brien has been called off. The bout was to have taken place on Sept. 7. It will be called off by the referee at the time of the bout.

Scat Up For Life. Mayaville, Ky., Aug. 27. — The jury in the case of Thomas Delany Mayberry, accused of the murder of the father at Mt. Olivet, rendered a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at life imprisonment. Mayberry was taken at once to Frankfort. There is much dissatisfaction over the verdict in Robertson county, but there was no outbreak.

Boat Overturned, Four Dead. Chicago, Aug. 26. — Four employees of the sanitary district board were drowned in the Illinois and Michigan canal while taking soundings from a scow at Morris, Ill. The boat overturned. The dead: Edward Costello, James Leifman, Edward Kelly and James Rahay, brother of State Senator Rahay.

Reported Missing. Wilmington, O., Aug. 29. — Charles D. Lamb, deputy treasurer of Clinton county, is reported mysteriously missing.

MARKET REPORTS. Grain and Stock Prices For August 29. Cleveland. — Cattle choice fat dry cows, 1200 lbs. and up, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

East. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

West. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

South. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

North. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

Central. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

Southwest. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

Northwest. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

West Coast. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

East Coast. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4.25; 75% good to choice grass and corn, $4.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $3.75; 125% good to choice grass and corn, $3.50; 150% good to choice grass and corn, $3.25; 175% good to choice grass and corn, $3.00; 200% good to choice grass and corn, $2.75; 225% good to choice grass and corn, $2.50; 250% good to choice grass and corn, $2.25; 275% good to choice grass and corn, $2.00; 300% good to choice grass and corn, $1.75; 325% good to choice grass and corn, $1.50; 350% good to choice grass and corn, $1.25; 375% good to choice grass and corn, $1.00; 400% good to choice grass and corn, $0.75; 425% good to choice grass and corn, $0.50; 450% good to choice grass and corn, $0.25; 475% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00; 500% good to choice grass and corn, $0.00.

South Coast. — Hides, Calves, Sheep, Goats, etc. — Choice export cattle, $5.00; 100% good to choice grass and corn, $4.75; 25% good to choice grass and corn, $4.50; 50% good to choice grass and corn, $4 horses at $125 $150.—Mt Sterling Advocate.

1725

J. W. Dean,
Contractor for Brick and
Stone Work. Lime and Cement for sale. Give him a call when needing
anything in his line.
JACKSON, KY.

DAY BROS.

J. W. Dean,
Contractor for Brick and Stone Work. Lime and Cement for sale. Give him a call when needing
anything in his line.
JACKSON, KY.

THE BREATHITT NEWS.

J. WISE HAGINS, Editor.

Friday, Sept. 24 1904.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

J. WISE HAGINS C. X. BOWLING

HAGINS & BOWLING,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,
Office over Post-Office,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

All business entrusted to them will receive prompt and careful attention.

L. C. ROARK
LAWYER,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.
Will practice in Breathitt and Magoffin Counties.

G. W. FLENNOR A. H. PATTON

FLENNOR & PATTON
LAWYER,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

JOHN D. WHITE,
Lawyer,
Office over Bank, Manchester, Clay Co., Kentucky.
Also
Room 603, Kentucky Title Bldg., Louisville, Ky.

Will practice in State and U. S. Courts.
Invites correspondence touching New Era Co. lands in Taylor or G. V. L. Co. lands in Harlan, or Glouster Creek farm for sale in Clay Co., Ky.

Upon application will investigate and report value of timber or large tract of timber, coal and oil lands located between Meigs and Boone counties, Ky., and the head of Kentucky River, Leitcher Co., Ky.

LEETE & BEUNE
CIVIL ENGINEERS
AND SURVEYORS.
Prompt Attention given to all classes of work and SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
OFFICE JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

On Tuesday Messrs. J. R. Ball, J. H. Clay, John Skiff, and Captain Maddox representing the Chamber of Commerce and business men generally of Lexington visited our City as a committee on arrangements to confer with our business men here for the entertainment of a party consisting of about 100 people to visit our town on September 14th.

The object being to have our business men and those of Lexington become better acquainted and promote the business interests between the two places.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

The Democratic primary held on last Saturday in the counties of Knott, Floyd and Magoffin to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge resulted in the nomination of Judge D. W. Gardner of Salersville over Judge D. D. Sublett of that place by a majority of 654 carrying every county in the District. It was a very interesting contest. James Collier of Prestonsburg and Wm. Baker of Hindman were candidates up until only a short time before the primary when they withdrew and left the battle to Gardner Sublett. Judge Gardner is the incumbent in that office having appointed to that position by Gov. Beckham at the creation of that District. We presume that Senator Sublett has got enough of making new districts over the protests of the citizens of all the counties involved.

MARRIED.

Prof. M. L. Girton president of the S. P. Lees Collegiate Institute of this place and Miss Allene Drake of Asheville North Carolina were married August, seventeenth noon at three o'clock in Asheville at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Henry M. Brown.

Miss Drake was favorably connected with the Lees Collegiate Institute the past year as a member of the faculty and is pleasantly remembered here by a host of friends. Prof. Girton has done an admirable work in Jackson as president of our school and it was a wise choice when he was selected as president of the institution for the coming term.

They will spend a few weeks at Mammoth Cave after which they will return to Jackson.

=NEW STORE=

GOODS NEW

Building New

-Prices New-

FOR THE LATEST

Dress Goods, Laces, Embroideries, Calicoes, Skirts, Silks, Notions, Percales, Tickings, Chambrays Also Men's Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shirts, Sox, Collars, Underwear, and Trunks, Valises, Queens Ware Hardware, Drugs, and Groceries of all kinds. Goods Delivered. Prices the Lowest, Wholesale and Retail. Highest price paid for Country Produce. All Welcome.

JOHN WATTS
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

WANTED, Your Trade

Just as soon as the people learn how easy, how satisfactory, and how economical it is to buy goods from

The Osborn-Patton Mercantile Company,

Just that soon you are on the road to make and save money, just as fast our business grows just that soon you go to saving money.

To buy of us once means that you will be a regular patron in future. Because we sell at the lowest Cash Prices and guarantee every thing we sell you, no matter how little you need, get it here. We appreciate a call whether you buy or not. No trouble to show goods less trouble for you to buy.

After You Look, We don't try to substitute, We don't try to sell you what you don't need.

We carry a new fresh stock of every thing in the merchandise line from the smallest up.

See our neat fresh stock of groceries, THE FINEST LINE IN TOWN. Special inducements in all our lines.

Watch for our Saturday Red Mark
SALES EVERY SATURDAY.

LOOK for our ad each week, our competitors feel the weight of our advent into the general merchandise business. We solicit the independent trade and feel confident we will get it.

Yours Anxious to Please,

The Osborn-Patton Mercantile Co.

Correspondence.

PRIMEOSE.

I have not been asleep all the time as might suspect, and my last appearance had have in the mean time with my better half, spent a few days at the World's Fair. We took the short line through train (Southern R. R.) which made the distance in a short time indeed and our ride a pleasure, saw some beautiful country and enjoyed the Fair splendidly. It won't pay any one who can go to miss it. It helps us when we read of something to know that we have seen it and one will see it there if they will keep their eyes open.

Miss Lula Bailey has returned to her school at Union she dismissed a few days to go to the World's Fair.

Lula Harper of Lexington is visiting Mrs. C. V. Gray near Union.

A blue vacation was preached at New Spring last Sunday by Rev. J. P. Pendergrass. Text: "Ask and ye shall receive."

G. W. Robinson of Winchester was in our midst this week and tells us that he likes his location all right.

Revs. Ball and Stammer held a protracted service lately at Union and received a number of additions as the fruits of their labors.

The late weddings in our midst show that worthy young men have taken our advice as to the place to find the model girls. Let them still come for like the wine of old the best is yet in reserve.

Hooker.

TORRENT.

Rev. C. E. Paxson of Paris has been preaching a series of lectures at Ridgewood, Ky., who are within reach, means to attend.

Miss Nellie Adams of Zanesville friends at Jamestown.

Mrs. Earle Ashley of Jackson, who has been visiting her parents and Mrs. William Jones of Jackson, home Friday.

A social was given at the home of Mrs. Mary Martin on the evening of the 21st in honor of her daughter, Miss Effie who leaves to day for Midway Ky. where she will be a student in the Midway Female Seminary for the coming year. Among those present at the enjoyable occasion, were Misses Ella Proctor, Emma Whisman, Malvina

RAILROAD TABLES
Lexington & Eastern R'y

LOCAL TIME TABLE.
Effective May 22nd, 1904.

East Bound		West Bound
No. 1, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 2, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 1, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 2, Daily, ex. Sunday
A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.
Lexington, 2:25	7:45	Ar Lexington, 10:10	6:05
Winchester, 3:10	8:35	Winchester, 9:25	6:50
Clay City, 3:55	9:13	Clay City, 8:37	7:39
Stanion, 4:00	9:53	Stanion, 8:28	8:20
Natural Bridge, 4:25	9:51	Natural Bridge, 8:01	9:01
Torrent, 4:40	10:38	Torrent, 7:47	9:47
Beattyville Jan., 5:11	10:29	Beattyville Jan., 7:26	9:26
O. & K. June, 6:11	11:30	O. & K. June, 6:29	9:29
Ar Jackson, 6:15	11:30	Ar Jackson, 6:25	9:25

Nos 3 and 4 make close connection for Canaan City and points on Ohio Kentucky Railway Division, daily except Sunday.

Nos. 1 and 2 connect at L. & E. Junction with Chesapeake & Ohio for Mt. Sterling and local points.

Train No. 2 connects at Beattyville Junction with L. & A. for Beattyville.

J. E. Barr, Gen. Mgr.
Chas. Scott, G. P. A.

O. & K. RY
Effective May 22nd, 1904.

East Bound		West Bound
No. 1, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 2, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 1, Daily, ex. Sunday	No. 2, Daily, ex. Sunday
A. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.
Lexington, 2:25	7:45	Ar Lexington, 10:10	6:05
Winchester, 3:10	8:35	Winchester, 9:25	6:50
Clay City, 3:55	9:13	Clay City, 8:37	7:39
Stanion, 4:00	9:53	Stanion, 8:28	8:20
Natural Bridge, 4:25	9:51	Natural Bridge, 8:01	9:01
Torrent, 4:40	10:38	Torrent, 7:47	9:47
Beattyville Jan., 5:11	10:29	Beattyville Jan., 7:26	9:26
O. & K. June, 6:11	11:30	O. & K. June, 6:29	9:29
Ar Jackson, 6:15	11:30	Ar Jackson, 6:25	9:25

Nos 3 and 4 make close connection for Canaan City and points on Ohio Kentucky Railway Division, daily except Sunday.

Nos. 1 and 2 connect at L. & E. Junction with Chesapeake & Ohio for Mt. Sterling and local points.

Train No. 2 connects at Beattyville Junction with L. & A. for Beattyville.

J. E. Barr, Gen. Mgr.
Chas. Scott, G. P. A.

Louisville & Atlantic Ry.
In effect July 15th 1904

No 5, Arive, P. M.	Stations	No 6, Leave, A. M.
6:15	L. & E. Jackson	6:25
5:45	Beattyville Jet	7:30
4:50	Beattyville	7:45
4:30	Hendeburg	8:02
3:15	Levine	8:20
2:15	Richmond	10:20
No 1, P. M.	Levine	2:35
11:55	Richmond	3:45
11:35	Valley View	4:15
11:15	Nicholasville	4:45
10:55	Versailles	5:15
7:40	Louisville	8:15
Ar	Ar	Ar

H. B. Smith G. F. & P. A.
Versailles, Ky.

Excursions Rates to North-Ern Resorts.

Excursion tickets at unusually low rates good for the season, on the daily beginning July 1st to November 1st, Madison, Waukesha, Green Lake, Devil Lake, Gahobie, Ashland, Wisconsin Superior, Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis and many other cities and delightful lake resorts reached by the North-Western Line.

Information and tickets can be secured from your home agent. Book entitled "The Lakes and Summer Resorts of the Northwest" mailed upon receipt of 4 cents in stamps. W. B. Kniskern, P. O. Box 100, N. W., Chicago, Ill.

$10.00 to Colorado and Return
Via Chicago, Union Pacific & Northern Railway. Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, thence by the Denver & Rio Grande through the mountains. Corresponding rates from all points east. Only one night to Denver from Chicago and Buffalo. State and only 100 nights enroute from the Atlantic. See board. The fast train daily. 3:30 P. M. Leave 435 Pine Street Cincinnati, Ohio.

$12.50 to the Springs, S. D.
$10.75 to Deadwood and Leadville and return from Chicago daily, via the Chicago & North-Western Ry. Corresponding rates from other points. The Black Hills region, the great natural sanitarium of the West is one of the most picturesque spots in the World and well worth a visit. Information and tickets can be secured from your home agent. Illustrated black hills booklet with valuable map mailed upon receipt of 4 cents in stamps. W. B. Kniskern, Chicago.

See S. D. Flenner for bargains in tickets. A line 8 day tourist check for $1.00. Others sell the same check for $2.50.

One guess may mean a fortune to you

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET
CN WHICH BLUE PENCIL WAS FREELY USED.

TUESDAY.

Train struck and fatally injured Charles Braxton and Wiley Patterson at a Covington (Ky.) crossing.

Senator Platt states he received a letter from William Wood declining to be the Republican nominee for governor of New York.

An unknown girl, about 20 years old, committed suicide at Cleveland by jumping from the Central viaduct draw to river, a distance of 100 feet.

A fast Wabash passenger train collided with a Baltimore and Ohio freight train at Massillon, O. G. V. Hawley of Norwalk, O., a brakeman, was killed.

Major Arthur W. Reynolds of Columbus, a member of General Spinks' staff at Camp Harlick, Athens, O., sustained a compound fracture of the right leg. Thrown from horse.

In an explosion of gas in a slope of the Buck Ridge Coal company near Shamokin, Pa., John Bader, Lincoln Campbell, Harry Whitten and Anthony Tilditski sustained fatal injuries.

MONDAY.

Body of John Studer, wealthy widow, found in creek near Coshocton, O.

Serious forest fires raging near Seattle, Wash.; Kallispel, Mont., and Portland, Ore.

Seven lives lost in the flood that swept through the town of Globe, Ariz., and vicinity.

Fire destroyed the Hotel Cambridge, Lima, O. George Burlage, a travelling salesman, perished.

Express train on the Pennsylvania road derailed by landslides at Hardeburg, Pa. Four iramen badly injured.

Factory of the Lynchburg box company, a warehouse occupied by the K. L. Tobacco company, two retail grocery stores and a frame residence burned at Lynchburg, Va. Loss $40,000.

SATURDAY.

W. T. Marshall appointed postmaster at Pleasant Hill, O.

People's National bank at Swanton, Vt., closed by order of the controller of the currency.

Edward T. Mayle, 59, killed by train while trackwalking in the Big Four yards at Columbus, O.

Durfee a spotted over dice in a Cincinnati saloon John Parks fatally stabbed Isaac Adams. Both injured.

Failures this week numbered 236 in the United States against 238 last year, and 21 in Canada compared with 8 a year ago.

August Anderson, a farmer of Starke county, Ind., died in a Chicago hospital from the bite of a mosquito. Blood poison followed.

C. E. Finch, 39, Lima, O., arrested at Bellefontaine, O., on a charge of embezzlement referred by his employer, Harry N. Glin of Lima.

Henry Warner shot and killed near Hopkinsville, Ky., by Rip Griffin, a tenant, in a dispute about farm matters, died of his wounds. Griffin escaped.

FRIDAY.

Minister Spuler at Havana cables the state department that Carlos Ortiz was appointed Cuban secretary of state and justice.

Sam Brown, a negro, shot and killed Allen Heathcliff, a prominent young white farmer and sawmill owner of Catton county, S. C., and escaped.

John Richmond, the Irish leader, and Patrick O'Brien and Captain Donohue, Nationalist members of parliament, sailed for New York on the Teutonic.

At Pleasantview, America county, Vt., 25 persons attending the meeting of the Piedmont Baptist association poisoned, several fatally, by eating lemon.

Engineer Patrick Mitchell killed and four brakemen injured in a collision between a water train and work train at Elizabethtown, Ind., on the Lawrenceburg branch of the Big Four railroad.

THURSDAY.

Colonel Prentiss Ingraham, 60, of Chicago, said to be the author of more than 1,000 novels, died at Hamcor, Miss.

Douglas Maybrier, who murdered John W. Thompson, jailer at Mount Olive, Ky., brought to Mayesville, Ky., for safe keeping.

Forest fires in the Canadian mountains east of Lebanon, Ore., reported raging uncontrolled over a large section of the country.

Fire at Gulfport, Miss., started in the Youngland building, which resulted in a property loss of $75,000. Six business buildings were destroyed.

Joseph Francis, 17, who was shot while taking a dummy package, passed to contain $1,500 of blood money from Jacob Feldman, near Holly Springs, Ia., made a complete confession that he devised the blackmail plot.

WEDNESDAY.

George E. Lounsbury, who was mayor of Connecticut in 1899 and 1900, died at his home, Farmington, Conn.

Fire destroyed the sales studios owned by J. J. Nichols and the Merion Brothers' laundry at Taunton, Mass. Total loss $30,000.

Carnegie Steel company served notices on all the clerks in the South Sharon (Pa.) office that after Sept. 1 their services would not be required.

One person was killed and seven were injured by the overturning of a car on the Camden and Union railway line at Hatch's Corners, Delmar, N. J.

DAY BROS. COMPANY

Wholesale - and - Retail have the most complete stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Ever brought to Jackson Consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Hats, Shoes.

We have the Finest line of SHOES in Eastern Kentucky. Our mens shoes are of the Latest Style.

For the Ladies we have the most Fashionable Lot of Shoes money could buy.

Millinery Goods

This Department is under the management of Mrs R. J. Fulkerson who can show you direct from New York City. Also FASHIONABLE DRESS GOODS, in all the Latest Patterns and weaves Fresh from the Eastern Markets.

The Latest Style Hats

If you need any House Furnishings or

FURNITURE

We are the people you are looking for we have it by car loads to suit every body.

Come and see us our

Prices Are All Right.

DAY BROS. COMPANY,
Jackson, Kentucky.

J. W. Dean,
Contractor for Brick and Stone Work. Lame and Cement for Sale. Give him a call when needing anything in his line.
JACKSON, KY.

The Breathitt News.

Published Every Friday.

Local and Personal

We will accept advertisements on a guarantee that our paper has more than twice the circulation in Breathitt County of any paper published. Our paper goes to every post office in Perry County and almost every one in Lee, Magoffin, Owsley, Wolfe and Knott Counties.

If you want to reach the mountain trade, try an ad in the BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS.

Matings in Day Bros. Co.

J. B. Marm and wife went to Louisville Sunday returning Wednesday.

Fine Mocha-Java Coffee at Hidden Bros.

Kelly Rush went to Beattyville Saturday on legal business.

This is an all home print paper. Read both sides if you want to get all the news.

James P. Gaudin of Jeff was here at business Wednesday.

Young and Hagins will hold their regular meeting at 8 o'clock on Friday at the Depot.

Helen Gaudin is building a new residence on his property on West Main Street.

Home grown, watermelons at Hidden Bros.

T. M. Davidson is having his home on the Heights repaired and other repairs done. James G. Roth is the architect.

Save your laundry for Young & Hagins. Representative for Savers Laundry Lexington, Ky.

W. E. Strong, wife and family at Lexington have been visiting friends and relatives in the county during the past week.

Now is the time to buy your mutton at Day Bros. Co.

Uncle Hagnah has bought out the interest of Kendrick Williams in the mail and laundry business.

Mrs. Corbin Clark of Mt. Vernon was visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Clark this week. She came up to attend the funeral of her nephew Mrs. May Thomas.

When in Lexington, stop with Matt Bros. at Reed Hotel.

James Candell of Stevenson has been on Wednesday. He is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of School District No. 30 and has been connected for the erection of a new school house in his district.

Day Bros. Co. have received 100 hats of new mutton which they are selling at great bargains.

Mr. J. T. Steele and wife of Wolf County visited the families of attorney E. A. Hume and J. D. Bach on Saturday until Monday. They were accompanied home by Mr. Bach's son, Master Herschel.

Salesman Wanted—To sell the Singer Sewing Machines in Lee, Owsley, Knott and Perry counties. This is a commission work. Call on or address The Singer Mfg. Co., 41 J. B. Lantz, Mgr. Jackson, Ky.

FOR SALE—Two splendid milk cows. Wm. B. Hagins.

Sevell Benton and Mrs. Mary Carpenter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter were married at the residence of the brides parents near Louisville last Saturday.

Religious services will be conducted at the month of East Creek on the 4th, Saturday and Sunday in August by Rev. R. B. Landrum and Stephen Carpenter, everybody invited.

Any one wanting Champion mowers or Hayrakes. Call on or address, Atlas Plow & Mfg. Co., Beattyville, Ky.

Green Simpkins and Miss Ida O'Brien were married at the residence of E. L. Cope last Friday. Rev. M. W. Hiner officiating.

Mourner Smith and family are visiting friends and relatives at Lost Creek. Mr. Smith is in very poor health and will remain as the guest of his father R. E. Smith and his sister Mrs. Martha Smith for some time for a much needed rest.

Judge S. H. Patrick who has been confined to his room for so long with a complication of diseases slipped and fell on his front door step while walking on crutches and broke one of his legs and sprained his ankle.

If you want results, advertise in the paper that has the circulation—That's us.

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET

ON WHICH BLUE PENCIL WAS FREELY USED.

happenings in the various quarters of the world will be found daily chronicled in the fewest words in this column.

TUESDAY. Suspension announced at New York of Hanks Brothers, stock brokers. Steamer Poncharvra wrecked off the coast of Natal, South Africa. Twenty-five persons drowned.

Cloakmakers numbering 2,000 went on strike at Cleveland for increase in wages, recognition of the union and "closed" shops.

Strike of papermakers broken in the Fox river valley, Wis., the old employees returning to work under the terms of the mill owners.

Governor Wright of the Philippines issued an executive order directing the concentration of the inhabitants of Iloilo, Cebu, Zamboanga and Davao river districts of the island of Samar.

Miss Clara Bontland, 16, daughter of Hon. W. E. Bontland of Dixon, Ky., killed by lightning while talking over a telephone during a heavy thunder storm.

MONDAY. Department store of J. W. Lakin burned at Marysville, O. Loss $30,000.

Chairman Cortelyou announces that President Roosevelt will not make any political speeches this year.

President Roosevelt tendered a reception and delivered a brief speech to about 500 schoolteachers of Porto Rico.

Rev. Michael Healy, 81, pastor of St. Mary's church, Tiffin, O., died from the effects of a fall from a window of St. Columba's rectory, Youngstown, O.

Mrs. Ada Richardson, wife of a prominent farmer of Methuen, Mass., stabbed to death at a Boston hotel by Edward Clarke, who vainly attempted to commit suicide.

Boron Matsudaira, vice president of the Louisiana Purchase exposition commission from Japan, gives assurance that Japan will be represented at the Lewis and Clarke exposition, Portland, Ore.

SATURDAY. Sixty-one Hungarian deputies have sailed for St. Louis.

Germany advises Turkey to comply with demands of the United States.

It is rumored that the Paraguayan insurgents captured the ports of Humaita, Villa Pinar and Concepcion.

The United States squadron consisting of the Olympia, Baltimore and Cleveland has arrived at Smyrna.

Minister of Public Works at Washington is quoted as saying that the disturbances have occurred at Gonaives, Haiti.

The British Valley Coal company will shut down for one week, beginning the 15th. Fifty thousand men will be affected.

Police Commandant Torres of Aguas Calientes, a village of Simla, India, and the two police who killed Clarence Way and Edward Lattimer, Americans, were sentenced to be shot.

FRIDAY. Miss Mae Scott was nominated by the Republicans of Idaho for state superintendent of common schools.

A state of siege has been proclaimed in the republic of Paraguay owing to fear of a revolutionary outbreak.

At Columbus, O., Mrs. Lawrence Kilgore was perhaps fatally burned while filling the tank of a gasoline stove.

Secretary Morton and party left Washington aboard the Dolphin for a visit of inspection to northern navy yards.

During the funeral of former Senator George H. Vest at St. Louis all the municipal offices were closed and flags placed at half mast.

J. E. R. Huger, formerly president and treasurer of the Reinger Lumber company of Kansas City, Mo., was arrested at South Haven, Mich., on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $43,200 from the company.

THURSDAY. Speaker Cannon addressed the Republicans at the opening of Vermont campaign.

The British admiralty has asked for bids for two speedy battleships of 16,500 tons each.

Carle Nation has sent a check for $1,160 to Home for Wives of Brunkards at Topeka, Kan.

Near Pomroy, O., Rev. Glenn Tillman was accidentally and fatally shot by Rev. Newsome while they were firing at a target.

John Harper, late manager of the miners' union store at Victor, Colo., was seized by a party of masked men and driven out of the district.

Of the 153 passengers on the ill-fated Missouri Pacific flyer that was wrecked at Eden 80 dead have been identified, two are unidentified, and 32 known are missing.

WEDNESDAY. A slight earthquake shock was experienced at Lisbon, Portugal.

The plant of the American Refrigerator Transit company in St. Louis was burned, entailing a loss of $250,000.

WATCHES.

For The Professional man Clergyman

Fine Watches for Presentation

PURPOSES.

$25.00 $50.00

And upward.

HEINTZ JEWELER

EAST MAIN STREET

OPPOSITE THE PHOENIX

LEXINGTON, KY.

Accidently Drowned

May Thomas aged five years daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of this place accidentally fell into a cistern at the home of Mr. J. T. Tullace on the "Thoroughbred" Saturday morning and was drowned.

The body was found floating in the cistern near the house during the morning hours and had been inside some thirty minutes before her mother or her father noticed it.

Mrs. Thomas called for her and made a search about the place but was unable to find her, and it was not until some woman who lived near by in the search that the cistern was sought and the body was seen floating on top of the water.

The water was soon taken from the cistern and the body was found in the cistern possibly for several minutes before discovered.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the home of her grandfather M. C. Raley after which the interment took place at the South End Rural cemetery.

Little May was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, was the pride and pet of the family and of all who knew her and was one of the most charming and popular little girls in town.

A New Year's death so tragical and unexpected has been deeply mourned by the people here and it was a large and grief-stricken crowd that followed the remains of little May to its final resting place beneath the graves on the hill.

Free Reclining Chair Cars to St. Louis.

The Southern Railway has inaugurated a line of free reclining chair cars on the night train between Lexington, Louisville and St. Louis through without change each direction. In addition to the through sleepers and coaches heretofore operated.

These are broad new vestibuled cars with all the latest improvements, including sunken compartments, separate wash rooms for ladies and gentlemen, lighted by patent gas. These reclining chair cars are sure to prove popular with the patrons of the road, as they are very comfortable and do not require the use of a Pullman sleeper without any extra charge. Any passenger holding a regular through ticket over the Southern Railway is entitled to ride in these cars.

The funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler wife of J. W. Wheeler, was conducted at the family grave near Chapel to Morgan County on last Saturday and Sunday by Rev. J. D. Hudson. John R. Wheeler and Greenville Stacy among those who attended from here were the following:

J. W. and Johnnie Hagan and wife and daughter, Miss Lillie, Alfred Allen and wife, S. M. Noble and wife Joseph Bowen and wife, and Noble and wife Roy Grant and wife and others. One of the largest congregations ever seen in that community was present.

I have 300 dozen Masons Fruit Jar Quarts and half gallons. Prices, very cheap.

M. S. Chute.

Dr. L. H. Blanton vice president of Central University and Mrs. Mary C. Bracken, of Lebanon were married last Wednesday at the home of J. W. Tate near Will more.

$30.00 to Colorado and Return Via Chicago, Union Pacific & North Western Lines. Chicago to Denver Colorado Springs and Pueblo, daily throughout the summer. Corresponding low rates from all points east. Only one night to Denver from Chicago and Central States and only two nights enroute from the Atlantic seaboard. Two fast trains daily.

N. M. Breeze 435 Vine Street Cincinnati, Ohio

All who are indebted to the estate of J. B. Marmen will please call and pay the same at once Mrs. J. B. Marmen Adams.

THE BREAD MAKER

has no fears of the result when using Mansfield's Flour

It is white and has the natural taste and flavor of the wheat berry. Baker, hotelier, waiter, housewife, bread that you have been using, because it is milled from the best wheat, and milled in the right way, on the best equipped roller flour mill in Kentucky.

Let a 25-lb. sack of BEST PATENT or MOUNTAIN LILLY talk to you. It will be more convincing than a barrel of words. Ask your grocer for it.

R. C. MANSFIELD & SON, ROSSLYN, KY.

"World's Fair" Southern Railway

SHORT LINE

43 Miles the Shortest

Fastest and Best to the World's Fair.

LOOK AT THE SCHEDULES:

Leave Lexington 8:10 a.m. Daily " Louisville 9:00 a.m. " Arrive St. Louis 4:50 p.m. Daily

Solid train of Pullman sleepers, Southern Railway Standard Dining Car and vestibuled coaches through from Lexington to St. Louis without change.

Leave Lexington 5:30 p.m. Daily " Louisville 6:15 p.m. " Arrive St. Louis 7:52 a.m. Daily

Solid train of Pullman sleepers, and free reclining chair car through from Lexington to St. Louis without change.

All trains make close connection at Union Station, St. Louis with Western Suburban Service and Electric Cars direct to the Fair grounds.

Round-Trip Excursion Rates From Lexington:

$16.65, good returning until Dec. 15th, 1901.

$18.85, good returning sixty days.

$12.40, good returning fifteen days. Tickets will be on sale daily at the above rates.

$8.70, Coach Excursion. Tickets on sale every Tuesday and Thursday until August and Sept.

Good returning seven days.

H. T. King, City Ticket Agent, 83 East Main St., Lexington, Ky.

W. H. Morgan, Ticket Agent Southern Depot, Lexington, Ky.

F. W. Crows, Travel Pass Agent, 59 E. Main St., Lexington, Ky.

C. H. Hufferd, Dist. Pass Agent, 224 Fourth Ave., Louisville, Ky.

G. R. Allen, Asst. Gen. Pass Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

A Welcome Visitor

The first big show of the season will visit this place on Friday August 26 at Jackson Kentucky.

Study this item of news will please the young folks, the children and the older ones all. SUN BROS. World's Progressive Railroad Show is one that has a standing record for presenting a good performance in one big ring in the good old style. SUN BROS. run their show strictly on business and moral principles. Nothing is permitted to appear that will mar the pleasure of the spectators. Neither are the unsavory scenes of the circus allowed to follow in this organization. The long standing organization of the SUN BROS. has a standing record in America and the Dominion of Canada. Still they are constantly improving their equipment in order to be conducted with their show. Fifty great elephants at this show will appear at every performance. Only two hours and one-half of enjoyment is allowed. Let all attend. At 10 o'clock. Evenings at 8 o'clock.

$27.50 HILL SPRINGS, S. D. $30.75 Deadwood and Leadville and return, from Chicago daily via the Chicago & North Western Ry. Correspondingly low rates from other points. The Black Hills region, the great natural sanctuary of the West, is one of the most picturesque spots in the world and well worth a visit. Information and tickets can be secured from your home agent. Illustrated Black Hills booklet with valuable map mailed on receipt of 4 cents in stamps by W. B. Kniskern, Chicago.

Have your old clothes cleaned and pressed and made new by the best workmen in Lexington. Young & Hagins are their agents.

A New Firm

The Saturday Morning, the Chicago Pattern Mosaic Co. is a partnership composed of J. B. Gaudin and Edward Patton two young men of high ability and energy possessing a wide experience in the general merchandise line and having men of confidence and respect in the community. The partnership that will be formed in the future will be a success.

They are located on Main St. opposite the Presbyterian Church in a new one-story building. The partnership of the new enterprise will be a success. The partnership of the new enterprise will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

They are well known in the community of the people in the vicinity of their trade. With their acquaintance and the business ability and industry of the two partners it is a safe bet that the partnership will be a success.

Honest

Watches

A small price is not money when buying a watch. The real economy of honest work and correct timekeeping is the true value of value. The watch upon which you rely for reliable watches, and in need to keep it by a thoroughly dependable kind. My stock comprises all the reliable makes, Elgin, Waltham, Hamilton, Illinois, etc. Whatever the price paid you are certain to get a reliable time keeper.

For further information, apply to E. A. Hornbrook, Agent, JACKSON, Ky.

Cool and Thicker Land Wanted.

Wanted one hundred thousand acres of cool and thicker land in Eastern Kentucky for Eastern Capitalists. Write to C. E. Swann Lexington

S. D. FLEENER, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

Combination time.

By our liberal terms with the publishers of other papers, we are able to furnish you two papers for a dollar more than the price of one. We save you money on any paper you will take. We will furnish you THE BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS and either of the following:

Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky. Chicago Inter-Ocean, Cincinnati, Ohio. Lexington Leader, Lexington, Ky. New York Tribune, New York, N.Y.

One Year For Only $1.00. It should be with you a paper that gives you the best in the country for so little money.

For Sample and Price List, send a check or cash to Geo. W. Crows, 38, Orchard or phone 38.

A satisfied customer is the best advertisement. Our customers advise us.

A. P. Crawford & Co.

LOW RATES TO Louisiana Purchase EXPOSITION, WORLD'S FAIR, St. Louis, Mo.

LOW RATE THIS Season Tickets on sale daily from JACKSON, KY.

Childs to Dec 15th 1901, $21.40

Day tickets on sale daily $1.45

Day tickets on sale daily $1.45

For further information, apply to E. A. Hornbrook, Agent, JACKSON, Ky.

Cool and Thicker Land Wanted.

Wanted one hundred thousand acres of cool and thicker land in Eastern Kentucky for Eastern Capitalists. Write to C. E. Swann Lexington

S. D. FLEENER, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

Combination time.

By our liberal terms with the publishers of other papers

The Substitute

By WILL N. HARBEN.

Author of
"Abner Daniel,"
"The Land of the Changing Sun,"
"The North West
Mystery," Etc.

Copyright, 1903, by HARPER & BROTHERS

[CONTINUED.]

Half an hour later Hanks slouched in and sat down in his accustomed place at the stove. Kenner was sitting on the floor, his head buried in his hands. Hanks swung his foot to and fro, his unlighted cigar in his hand, till he caught Hillyer's glance; then he grinned.

"Thought you was powerful smart, didn't you?" he said dryly.

"I don't know as I did," replied Hillyer, frowning a little.

There was silence for a moment, then Hanks said: "Well, you'll see why your money's gone of you'll keep a watch on it."

"I'll be gone clean to the Indian Territory as soon as Sanford's picked up his effects."

Hanks grinned again. "You never 'd 'a done it if you hadn't 'bowed 'em up. I'll tell you now you'll never get a cent on that drafted note from me."

"I never expect to," said Hillyer, smiling agreeably.

"Oh, that'll do to talk," answered Hanks. "You think, though, that I've never stood up and seen a body face it, a child of mine, but this is different. I was fetchin' up that boy 'necrology' to my lights, an' you come in an' interfere."

"He told me he was twenty-one," said Hillyer, still amused. "I saw a chance to lend 'im some money. That's all there is to it."

"Oh, well, you kin afford a little loss like that," rejoined Hanks. "An' who's to run through with the pile I kin show everybody I'm right in the stand I took with 'em."

As it was a busy hour, nothing more was said on the subject. A married farmer in a slouched hat came in to talk to Hanks about mortgaging a mule and a milk cow for his next year's supplies, and Hanks went out to see the mule and hear a minute description of the cow—her age, weight, progeny and habits.

That afternoon, as George and the merchant were closing the warehouse, the way to his boarding house. "They say old Lila's been laughin' round Bob's store all day watchin' 'im like a hawk," he informed them, with a laugh.

"I can't hide his interest. As soon as Bob ud make a move the old man'll run up to the cash drawer an' count the change an' ask the cost of the article. He's neglectin' his own matters. I'll swear it's funny. If he's talked with one man today he'll be with forty about Bob's venture. He wanted to find out what folks think, an' he's literally mobbed to find so many believe Bob knows what he's a-doin'."

"I need 'im a standin' in Bob's door watchin' Bob an' Henker Brotherly liddin' agin one another to buy a load of mountain chickens. I spoke to Lila, but he just kept chawin' his tobacco, so much absorbed he didn't hear us. Then we asked the fellow sister to drive up to Bob's door, an' oh Lila charged his hands together an' said: 'You got Bob got 'em? But he sorter coddled down when the chickens was unloaded an' he heard Bob had bid five cents apiece all round. He grabbed Bob as he was passin' an' said: 'Say, don't you think you went too steep on that load?' Bob was purty red, an' away, from lifting at the counter he was so anxious to get 'em in his sheldags an' he got redder, but he pulled the side of his face down an' looked to see that the fellow couldn't hear, an' said: 'Say, I've not already said in Athens at 20 cents apiece, an' that gals' goods to take his pay in coffee at 18 cents a pound—coffee that cost 10 in New Orleans. You see what I come in, don't you?"

"You better go it sorter slow at the start," Lila said, but he was simply tickled to death. "I'll swear it was fun to watch 'im. He'd rather see that boy learn how to handle money than fer 'im to be elected governor of this state."

Old Hanks seldom left his home after supper, but that evening he dropped in at Hillyer's, finding the merchant and his wife before a cheerful fire in the sitting room. He came in awkwardly, but his self-possession was a thing he always had with him. Kenner had once said that Hanks could scrap iron in a place taller than a white oak and never realize the oddity of his appearance. His broad nose was stuck up as if he had started to go to bed and changed his mind.

"I see Bob's got that store to goin'," he said dryly. "I've been watchin' 'im 'im today. I hardly know what to make of 'im."

Hillyer looked knowingly at his smiling wife and replied:

"So he's got me up on his legs, has he?"

"Opened up? I reckon he has; tuck in ninety odd dollars today, an' the Lord only knows what profit he'll average. I don't reckon Bob does, though I observed, though he didn't look so for."

"Oh, he'll hold Sanford's truck," said Hillyer. "You kin count on that."

"Well, I reckon he will," said Mrs. Hillyer. "I've changed my account to him from Waters & Co. An' why shouldn't I? Do you reckon I'm not goin' to encourage rail enterprise? Just the minute he told me he was a-goin' to run a free delivery wagon to take orders an' deliver goods twice a day I put my name down. The idea of them old fogies waitin' for young folks to stand a free delivery wagon, the minute I told Mrs. Lufkin about it she might nigh kick her apron, she was so glad. I send her up in just before supper. She'd been down an' ordered a whole raft of stuff she didn't need just to see 'em come up like they do in cities. She's been traumpin' from one end of town to 'tother tellin' folks they won't have to make a step either way to get what they want for the time. Bob's boy (Lila) the first thing

In the morning an' wrote down what's wanted, an' up the stuff comes. He's got some little have you send them little books he's givin' away for a book to write orders in? Oh, you have! Well, it's a powerful good idea. Now, well, kin dispute their account when it's writ in their own handwrite? Mr. Hanks, an' she's sure as a north star that Hanks's got to answer."

Hanks looked at the fire. His eye, mainly on doing things, held a sparkle or was it only the reflection of the flames in the chimney?

"I sorter like his start," he admitted. "I was always afraid of the influence of that triflin' set of folks. It was awful, an' today Bill (Lila) the worst of the lot, drew up a chair in front of the door where Sanford used to sit, an' while an' started to take a seat. He's you, Bob called 'im to take 'im 'im he wasn't a-goin' to have his friends settlin' round the front of the store that a way—said it didn't look like business, an' he was goin' to start. He'd an' sorter have to the line. Then, an' one of the clerks that Sanford used to let do party much as he liked was startin' to fight a chair behind the show case, an' Bob yanked 'im up to 'em. He said politely: 'We sell these clerks an' gumpwags, an' we have to be careful. Besides, it don't look right. He'd an' burn out we'd want to catch our insurance without bein' accused of carelessness."

"Yes," Hillyer said, his amused glance on the face of his wife. "I believe Bob's goin' to do all right. My daddy used to think I was dead lazy because I didn't like to chop sprouts in the middle of August as well as I did to play with 'em an' the ball game. The boys, Bob's firm, an' the only way to amount to a hill of beans is to enjoy what you're at. You think you're a good business man, Hanks, but that's as much fun at the job you have as I can get with a full hand. You'll be to sleep an' sleep on time for anybody but yourself, but you'll be used to that out where Bob's talent lay."

"Hanks drew himself up. He had no need during his visit, and he rarely needed concessions. He did both now rather sheepishly.

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm in to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob gave you. I reckon I'll be to stand the risk as well as you are."

"Well," Hillyer smiled again at his wife. "I think you've got a lot of it to come to me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think to myself," joined in Mrs. Hillyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hillyer was just sayin' the other day that it was mighty wise, impossible to put money out where it'd be safe an' draw any sort of a rate, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked staid.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

enough to me," continued the merchant. "Well, enough. She's the picture of health. But are you thinkin' I don't you see in back before your eyes? Don't see nothin' but that she's just what we need away from Richmond, an' all the visits she's makin' to Bob's store, an' the other girls back there. That's a powerful good idea. Now, well, kin dispute their account when it's writ in their own handwrite? Mr. Hanks, an' she's sure as a north star that Hanks's got to answer."

Hanks looked at the fire. His eye, mainly on doing things, held a sparkle or was it only the reflection of the flames in the chimney?

"I sorter like his start," he admitted. "I was always afraid of the influence of that triflin' set of folks. It was awful, an' today Bill (Lila) the worst of the lot, drew up a chair in front of the door where Sanford used to sit, an' while an' started to take a seat. He's you, Bob called 'im to take 'im 'im he wasn't a-goin' to have his friends settlin' round the front of the store that a way—said it didn't look like business, an' he was goin' to start. He'd an' sorter have to the line. Then, an' one of the clerks that Sanford used to let do party much as he liked was startin' to fight a chair behind the show case, an' Bob yanked 'im up to 'em. He said politely: 'We sell these clerks an' gumpwags, an' we have to be careful. Besides, it don't look right. He'd an' burn out we'd want to catch our insurance without bein' accused of carelessness."

"Yes," Hillyer said, his amused glance on the face of his wife. "I believe Bob's goin' to do all right. My daddy used to think I was dead lazy because I didn't like to chop sprouts in the middle of August as well as I did to play with 'em an' the ball game. The boys, Bob's firm, an' the only way to amount to a hill of beans is to enjoy what you're at. You think you're a good business man, Hanks, but that's as much fun at the job you have as I can get with a full hand. You'll be to sleep an' sleep on time for anybody but yourself, but you'll be used to that out where Bob's talent lay."

"Hanks drew himself up. He had no need during his visit, and he rarely needed concessions. He did both now rather sheepishly.

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm in to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob gave you. I reckon I'll be to stand the risk as well as you are."

"Well," Hillyer smiled again at his wife. "I think you've got a lot of it to come to me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think to myself," joined in Mrs. Hillyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hillyer was just sayin' the other day that it was mighty wise, impossible to put money out where it'd be safe an' draw any sort of a rate, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked staid.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

enough to me," continued the merchant. "Well, enough. She's the picture of health. But are you thinkin' I don't you see in back before your eyes? Don't see nothin' but that she's just what we need away from Richmond, an' all the visits she's makin' to Bob's store, an' the other girls back there. That's a powerful good idea. Now, well, kin dispute their account when it's writ in their own handwrite? Mr. Hanks, an' she's sure as a north star that Hanks's got to answer."

Hanks looked at the fire. His eye, mainly on doing things, held a sparkle or was it only the reflection of the flames in the chimney?

"I sorter like his start," he admitted. "I was always afraid of the influence of that triflin' set of folks. It was awful, an' today Bill (Lila) the worst of the lot, drew up a chair in front of the door where Sanford used to sit, an' while an' started to take a seat. He's you, Bob called 'im to take 'im 'im he wasn't a-goin' to have his friends settlin' round the front of the store that a way—said it didn't look like business, an' he was goin' to start. He'd an' sorter have to the line. Then, an' one of the clerks that Sanford used to let do party much as he liked was startin' to fight a chair behind the show case, an' Bob yanked 'im up to 'em. He said politely: 'We sell these clerks an' gumpwags, an' we have to be careful. Besides, it don't look right. He'd an' burn out we'd want to catch our insurance without bein' accused of carelessness."

"Yes," Hillyer said, his amused glance on the face of his wife. "I believe Bob's goin' to do all right. My daddy used to think I was dead lazy because I didn't like to chop sprouts in the middle of August as well as I did to play with 'em an' the ball game. The boys, Bob's firm, an' the only way to amount to a hill of beans is to enjoy what you're at. You think you're a good business man, Hanks, but that's as much fun at the job you have as I can get with a full hand. You'll be to sleep an' sleep on time for anybody but yourself, but you'll be used to that out where Bob's talent lay."

"Hanks drew himself up. He had no need during his visit, and he rarely needed concessions. He did both now rather sheepishly.

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm in to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob gave you. I reckon I'll be to stand the risk as well as you are."

"Well," Hillyer smiled again at his wife. "I think you've got a lot of it to come to me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think to myself," joined in Mrs. Hillyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hillyer was just sayin' the other day that it was mighty wise, impossible to put money out where it'd be safe an' draw any sort of a rate, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked staid.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse, Hillyer and his wife were engaged in conversation. "I've been to a full in business and em' variation that turned to Hillyer. 'I'm not satisfied that note to Bob this morn' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said?' Hillyer."

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a glow in his lamp, and began to look for a coal of fire. He sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. "What do you think of that?"

Hillyer shook his head, a puzzled expression on his face. The note no longer, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ex you no odds, Lila," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Oh, she's all right," said Mrs. Hillyer, as if he had forced the necessity of her fears down upon her by his warm words. "But we must handle her most carefully. I've trust and we kin of 'em country boys. I always call 'im to take 'im 'im offer, that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. I don't want 'im to be owein' me nothin'."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin let I ain't a-goin' to transfer my note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hillyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

